The village of Saint-Bon is where the Courchevel adventure originally began, with the construction of the resort's first hotel in 1908: the Lac Bleu. Brimming over with history, it is home to a baroque church and typical mountain village streets, enjoying gentle tranquillity and exceptional panoramic views over the valley... Regular shuttle buses link Saint-Bon to the other villages. It is also possible to hike around to discover the surrounding hamlets.
